This was my last stop of the day. I couldn't wait to get home and eat dinner. I climbed the steps and rang the door bell. A long haired dog ran to the window and started barking loudly at me. "Be quiet!" I heard a girl whisper. "Mom's trying to sleep!" The barking stopped as a brown haired girl opened the door. She signed for the package I had brought her. Finally I could head home!

I was lying on the couch trying to sleep when I heard the doorbell ring. I rushed to the door, looked out the window, and started barking at the woman at the door. “Be quiet! Mom’s trying to sleep,” my owner whispered loudly to me. I headed back to the couch as the door was opened.

“Ding-dong!” I opened my eyes, wondering if I should go get the door or try to go back to sleep. Just as I had decided to try to sleep, Fido started barking loudly. “UGHHHH,” I groaned, as I climbed out of bed. I headed for the front door just in time to see my daughter taking a package out of the postal worker’s hands.

Point of View Practice

Schools that have uniforms are often more successful. Students are less worried about what they are going to wear to school or what other students are wearing, and more concerned with their school work. Since many jobs require employees to wear certain clothing, having school uniforms is also good practice for the real world outside of school. Also, school uniforms are often cheaper than other clothes, which makes school more affordable for everybody.
